

Dear Awesome Youth Leader:

Anchored, the 2019 LCGYF Youth Retreat is scheduled for March 29-30 at Camp Pollock. Josh 'the colonel' Canfield of First Church of God Oak Grove will be our speaker and Micah Sasser of Oakmont Church of God will be leading worship. Retreat is $30 a person including leaders. If you have students who have never been to camp, this will be an awesome opportunity for them to get a taste and begin lifelong friendships. It's also a great time for old friends to reunite and worship their Savior together!

To help order food, please send an estimated group total by March 18 to rjrials22@live.com. Please email an updated total of guys and girls before noon of March 28 so we can post rooming assignments. You may return the sign-up sheet, but please be sure to fill out the male and female totals. Unisex names can be difficult to place.

We know the spring usually packs a full schedule, but we hope you and your group will be able to join us for an awesome weekend. To keep up with any developments on Retreat, other upcoming events and other LCGYF news, be sure to like our Facebook Page!

Praying for your gathering tonight!

-Richard Rials
